

LUNCH AND LEARN PROGRAM:

PVC 101

Attendees will understand the background, manufacturing process, pressure design, installation, innovations, and gravity design of PVC pipe for water and sanitary applications.

- 3rd Party Research & Resources
- Manufacturing & Quality
- Pressure Pipe Design
- Installation Types & Considerations
- Newer Technologies in Pressure Pipe
- Gravity Pipe Design

Westlake
Pipe & Fittings

PRESENTED BY:

NICK REIN

Regional Engineer
Westlake Pipe & Fittings

Nick Rein is the Regional Engineer for Westlake Pipe & Fittings in the Northeast Region, covering Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, New York, New Jersey, and New England. With 10 years of engineering sales experience, he assists municipalities, utilities, and consultants with technical support, specifications, and installation for Westlake's municipal pressure and gravity solutions. Based in the Cleveland area, he enjoys sporting events and movies.

DATE AND TIME:

TUESDAY, MARCH 11TH, 2025

12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

Lunch provided.

Please RSVP:

☎ Call Kelly Jo Nehay at 419-897-6000

🌐 Link to registration form

Participation in this presentation will earn attendees 1 Hour CEU/PDH credit.

Kuhlman University
1845 Indian Wood Circle,
Maumee, OH 43537